Pulcetta was a clown, the clown that makes people laugh. In the circus where he worked, he made everyone laugh, children, old people, angry people, tired people, happy people. Pulcetta was able to make anyone laugh!
One day, something unexpected happened, something which would have changed the life of the circus for ever: Pulcetta had lost his... RED NOSE!!! He had looked everywhere for it, in his pockets, under the circus floor, the RED NOSE had disappeared. It was absolutely essential to find it! Pulcetta decided that he would look for it the day after, someone must have seen his nose! And so, he will meet the Flamingo, the Hens, the Giraffe, the Snail with the house on its shoulders. He will ask the Sea, the Fish, the Moon; he will lose himself in the Forest and find the Butterflies in spring. In short, a long journey to discover that the Red Nose was always with him at every moment, in every second of his dancing, singing and laughing.

info: The prose season is organised by the Municipality of Alessandria in association with Piemonte dal Vivo and the participation of ASM Costruire Insieme.
